SIMPSON, CRAWFORD & SIMPSON

UNIQUE SALE OF HIGH CLASS EMBROIDERIES. THIS SALE BIDS FAIR TO BE HISTORICAL.

At no time in the past have such values ever been offered. Remember, these are only the very finest qualities—not a common pattern nor common grade among them. In fact, they are such as are very seldom seen nowadays at any price. Ladies who appreciate the very best would do well to make an early examination.

Dissected, this offering gives 120 designs in Hamburg Embroidery, carefully loomed on hand machines (not the steam driven, where slips and faults must go unrectified); insertions and edgings match in each set, patterns are all telling and graceful, every width shown, every strip perfect, fresh and immaculately white.

Sold in 41-2 Yard Strips Only at 12½c., 15c., 20c., 25c. Yd.
Each Worth Nearly Double Their Price.

LADIES' SUITS AND WRAPS. MORE SPECIAL PRICES.

We seldom speak nowadays of assortments, styles, fine tailor work and such incidentals. They take admirable care of themselves.

What you get for what you pay us is to-day's subject.

Two Suits—that ought to be a fourth higher. Half a dozen Skirts—groups teeming with value. A Golf Gape, $3.95, (none too many, though); with New York's easily leading $10.00 Coat offering as a finale—
